

From Wednesday's Daily.

Mr. H. L. Finlayson is in the city.

Regular meeting Junior Order U. A. M. tonight.

Mr. Chas. Dewey went down to Morehead this morning.

There is a scarcity of chickens and eggs in the city just at this time.

Mrs. W. C. West, of Kinston, arrived in the city today on a visit to her sister Mrs. Albert Hummel.

Mr. George Hummel, of Charlotte, is in the city on a visit to his brother Mr. Albert Hummel.

St. John Sunday school is making arrangements to hold their annual picnic sometime in the near future.

Mr. M. Mansour, the Walnut street merchant, has a special sale on and is offering some real bargains.

Don't forget Fussell Bros. excursion to Wilmington on the 14th. Get ready and take a day off. It will do you good.

We notice that a number of our citizens have adopted the suggestion of the Board of Aldermen, and are using time freely on their premises.

We continue to have good breaks of tobacco every day, and our farmers seem to be satisfied with the prices realized.

Mr. W. E. Jenkins returned today from Morehead, where Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. and Miss Tobias are spending ten days at the always pleasant Atlantic Hotel.

Some one stole a bicycle from in front of the Palace Drug Store, last night just before closing time and rode it off. The wheel was comparatively new and belonged to Mr. George Waters.

Misses Glennie Yelverton, Lydia Winslow, Mammie Best and Emma Finlayson, who have been visiting the family of Rev. M. Bradshaw, in Wilmington, are at home again.

Messrs. Geo. C. Royall and John L. Borden, the noted furniture men of this City and State, went down to Morehead city this morning to attend a meeting of the furniture men of the State.

Mr. H. D. Finlayson, a travelling salesman of Cheraw, S. C., an old Goldsboro boy, is in the city on a short visit to his friend Mr. B. R. King. They will both leave tomorrow morning for headquarters in Baltimore.

Lieut. Hugh H. Broadhurst, U. S. C., with headquarters at Gretna, Camp Roosevelt, arrived in the city last night on account of the critical illness of his sister Mrs. R. H. Edwards, whose condition today is practically unchanged, and very serious.

The Goldsboro Building & Loan Association are publishing today a very readable and complete circular on the workings of the Building & Loan, which we invite every one in whose hands it may come to give a careful perusal, as it is of interest to all.

Two arrests have already been made at Salisbury, of parties participating in the lynching of the negroes charged with the murder of the Lyerly family, and other arrests are expected to follow. Solicitor Hammer and Judge Long will leave nothing undone, as they declare to bring the guilty parties to justice.

We made a notice some days ago about mosquitoes being conspicuous for their absence in this city—but we are ready now to retract every word of it. Since the recent wet spell these little pesty tormentors are worse than we have ever known them, and these, together with the excessive heat, makes sleep almost impossible these nights.

The annual meeting and picnic of Thos. Ruffin Camp Confederate Veterans, jointly with the Daughters of the Confederacy will be held at Perkins Springs near Pikeville, tomorrow. All Confederate Veterans and their friends are invited to go and carry baskets. The committee of arrangement for the picnic at Perkins Springs on the occasion of the annual meeting of Thos. Ruffin Camp will have conveyances at Pikeville on the arrival of the trains both morning and noon to take the guests from the depot to the Springs free of charge.

The work of making improvements to the interior of the court house has about been completed, and looks very nice, but the improvements should not stop here. The entire building—if the Commissioners are not going to build a new one—should be thoroughly overhauled, both inside and out, up stairs and down. A nice coat of paint on the outside would greatly improve the appearance of the building. We might compromise with these additional improvements, but we still contend that we should have a new one, commensurate with our needs.

The Argus noted, with expression of regret, some days ago, the retirement of Mr. D. E. Sellars from the service of the Southern Railway at this point, and his removal to Burlington with his family, who have made so many friends here by whom they will be ever held in cordial esteem and remembrance. Mr. Sellars was going the rounds of the business circles of the city today, introducing to the trade his successor,

Mr. J. T. Preston, who is almost as good looking as Mr. Sellars, and is a gentleman of courteous bearing and agreeable address. We bid him a cordial welcome to the Best Town in the State. Mr. Preston will move his family here in the fall.

There is considerable complaint about the disagreeable odor arising from hog pens just beyond the corporate limits, in different parts of the city, and especially does this state of affairs exist in the Little Washington section of the city, where there are from two to three hog pens for every twenty or thirty feet, and the citizens living on George street are very much wrought up over the matter. They say that the bad odor arising from these filthy places—especially in damp weather—is almost unbearable. Mayor Hood had this matter investigated this morning by one of the city police who found a bad state of affairs. These people, in order to evade the law, get just across the city limits and erect these pens and allow them to get ankle deep in mud and filth and never clean them out, and it is not right. It is not only disagreeable, the offensive scent that arises from these filthy holes, but they are unhealthy. It is questionable whether or not the city has jurisdiction in the matter, but it is a serious thing and whoever has got authority should give the matter the attention it deserves.

HAPPINESS.

Of all life seems to offer, happiness is, perhaps, the supreme gift. Love, service and success are some of the names by which it is known—and at times it seems to possess an elusive glamour, placing it within the realm of the ideal, so that many turn aside from such a difficult quest to find, instead, a certain measure of content with which they hope to fill their lives. Happiness is achieved rather than inherited—and as there are difficulties in the way to success of any kind, the gift is never offered to weaklings.

Temperament is, of course, an important factor—and circumstance often seems to bar the way—for there is no will so strong that it is not influenced by what lies outside of it—but life presents to each the test of strength, and we have each the power to choose our own destiny, attracting to us the things we most desire and modelling our lives along the lines we wish—so that the events which seem accidents in our lives may be only the unexpected developments of our will—for a greater need is in itself, and evidence of its own fulfillment.

Happiness is a matter of selection—to decide upon the things most desired, and to press forward to their attainments giving up, overcoming all things that stands in the way. Faith is the keynote—the greatest faith has the fewest surprises—and folded in with faith is love. For though faith is lost in sight, love extends beyond the limit of the world and links man to God.

NOW IS THE TIME.

Summer is Best to Cure Catarrh. Hyomei Sold Under Guarantee

Summer is the best time in the whole year for the treatment of catarrhal troubles, and J. H. Hill & Son urge every reader of the ARGUS to use Hyomei now and be permanently cured.

Unlike the ordinary treatment for catarrh, there is no stomach dosing when using Hyomei. The remedy is breathed through a neat pocket inhaler that comes in every outfit, and its balsamic healing air penetrates to the most remote parts of the nose, throat and lungs searches out and kills the catarrh germs, in all parts of the respiratory organs and soothes and heals any irritation there may be in the mucous membrane.

Hyomei is not alone the only natural treatment for catarrh, but it is the only one sold under an absolute guarantee to refund the money unless it gives satisfaction. It kills all disease germs and restores the mucous membrane of the throat, nose and lungs to perfectly healthy condition.

The Complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00, extra bottles, 50c. J. H. Hill & Son sell Hyomei under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction. You run no risk at all in buying this guaranteed remedy.

Saturday Night Store Closing.

We have been requested to advocate, through the columns of the ARGUS, early Saturday night store closing, which we take great pleasure in doing.

We have written several articles along this line, but have been unable to get our merchants together on this proposition.

Nearly all the large cities of note are closing on Saturday night from two to three hours earlier than we close here in Goldsboro.

It is a long strain from 7:30 in the morning until 11 o'clock at night. It wears out the mind, body and soul of the overworked clerk. Any fair-minded man will agree that there is no necessity of keeping the stores open later than 10 o'clock. This would give the purchasing public ample time to do their shopping and the salesmen the required rest.

You meet a majority of our salesmen—and in many instances the proprietors themselves—on Sundays, in the throng of happy and contented people, and you see them with haggard, tired-out looks, a result of the strain of the day before.

It was our pleasure to talk of this matter with one of the prominent ministers of the city who seemed deeply interested in the movement. He said: 'I number in my congregation quite a few salespeople and never see them at the morning services. I have asked a number of them why I failed to see their smiling countenances at the services, and in each case I received the same answer: "We are too tired and worn out on Sunday morning to do anything, as we are on our feet from 7:30 in the morning until 12 o'clock at night, and by the time we get home and prepare for Sunday it is morning, and to get up and feel right in time for church service is out of the question."

Our merchants should get together on this proposition. They would enjoy the shorter hours as well as the salespeople. The matter should be taken up at once, and every conscientious man and woman in Goldsboro should assist in bringing about shorter hours on Saturday, which will be a God-send and boon to the salesmen and saleswomen.

If our merchants would get together and settle on an early closing hour—and every one pledge himself to close promptly at that hour—the trading public would soon become accustomed to it and no one would be the loser, and many would be benefited.

NEWS FROM WALTER.

Week's Happenings In That Thriving and Prosperous Neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Toby Howell were visitors in your city Saturday and Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grady.

Mr. Joe Warrick and Miss Lula Edwards of your city, were visiting Miss Laura Neal last Sunday.

Misses Leona Grady and Roxie Johnson and Messrs Albert Denmark and Leander Waters, were visitors at Mr. W. F. Ross' last Sunday.

Miss Ella Howell, of your city, is on an extended visit to her aunt, Mrs. W. F. Rose.

Mr. Albert Smith and Miss Ermo Swinson, went to Smithfield last week, where Miss Swinson was attending the Teachers Institute.

Mr. Will Yelverton, of Fremont, was here Saturday and Sunday, on a visit to his father Mr. Geo. Yelverton.

Miss Ophelia Coor, who is attending school near Pinkney, was at home Saturday and Sunday, where her many friends greeted her gladly.

Mr. Chester Smith, who is holding down a position in your city, spent Sunday here visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gurley, of your city, were here Tuesday, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Will Crawford.

We are not very cool out here nor dry either, but peas and hard cider are strictly in evidence, and together with other things, we find we have lots yet to be thoughtful for, and we are humping ourselves to remain "calm and serene," no matter what happens.

Mr. Leroy Miller, of Linwood, was here the past week on a visit to his college friend, Mr. Leland Beeton.

The hardest rain this section has ever seen, fell here last Tuesday afternoon and nearly all the bridges were washed away. In a small branch near Mr. J. P. Cox, the water ran over the top of a wire fence and washed 20 feet of the embankment from under the Southern railroad, which delayed traffic next morning. Fortunately the washout was discovered just before the 7 p. m. train was due, or a terrible calamity might have occurred, as it would not have been seen till too late to stop, the track being still in place, but the embankment gone, and a very high one too. The road force finished a temporary trestle at 2 a. m. so the trains now pass, but it will require some time to repair the damage permanently.

Neighbor R. L. Hooks was out one morning last week in quest of Reynard, but it was too wet, and the dogs could not do much. We went for a while, but realizing the fact that if they jumped one, they could easily drown him we came back waiting till Brer Fox could have a better showing.

Mr. Jno. Sasser spent Saturday and Sunday in Smithfield, visiting his brother Mr. F. R. Sasser.

BUCK SWAMP ITEMS.

The bridges across Buck Swamp which were washed away by the large rains in this community are being replaced.

Miss Lizzie Deans, is visiting relatives at Aycock's Mill this week.

Our farmers are very busy finishing their crops, having been delayed on account of the recent rains.

Miss Bertha Edgerton attended the Teacher's Institute at Smithfield last week.

Mr. John W. Pate, of your city, was in this vicinity Sunday.

Mrs. Marvin Applewhite, is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Philip Peacock this week.

Sorrow finds a responsive chord in many hearts. Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gray Aycock this morning and took from them their precious little babe, and God claimed it, and now the unfolding bud of immortality blooms in a brighter and more genial clime. May the God of all grace comfort them. The internment will be made in the family burying ground this evening.

Stolen.

A suitable reward will be paid for the return or information leading to the recovery of one Racyde Bicycle nearly new, model 114, No. 1131, taken from the front of the Palace Drug Store Tuesday night, Aug. 7th, at about 9:30 o'clock.

THE PALACE DRUG STORE.

Has Stood the Test 25 Years. The old, original GROV'S Tasteless Chill Tonic. You know what you are taking. It is iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure. No pay. 50c.

Have you seen our line of Carriages and Go Carts. Andrews & Waddell.

STATE COMMITTEE.

Democrats in Raleigh Plan the Campaign Ahead-Central and Advisory Boards Are Appointed From Over the State.

The State Democratic Executive Committee met in Raleigh Monday night and organized for the impending campaign by re-electing F. M. Simmons, United States Senator as State Chairman, and Alex J. Field, Secretary.

Senator Simmons in accepting another term as chairman reviewed former campaigns that he has conducted, covering a period of twelve years, congratulating the party especially on the fact that the race problem had been eliminated and the action of the party in that respect had the real approval of the best people the country over, so that there is no probability of this work being undone. He said there were those who had predicted that when the race problem was eliminated, there would be a division of the Democratic party so that there would be two strong parties in the State.

"I say," said Senator Simmons, "that time can never come in North Carolina until men who invite white men to leave the Democratic party are themselves respectable and fit for self-respecting white men to associate with."

He expressed deep appreciation of the honor conferred on him in the re-election to the chairmanship and pledged his most zealous efforts. The election of the State Central Committee resulted as follows:

First District—E. F. Lamb, Elizabeth City; W. U. Hampton, Plymouth; B. B. Winborn, Murfreesboro; H. T. Greenleaf, Elizabeth City.

Second District—T. W. Mason, Northampton; J. W. Granger, Kinston; H. A. Gilliam, Tarboro; L. E. Green, Weldon.

Third—C. E. Foy, Newbern; N. O'Berry, Goldsboro; E. M. Koonce, Jacksonville; T. C. Whitaker, Trenton.

Fourth—H. A. London, Pittsboro; F. S. Spruill, Lenoir; B. H. Bunn, Nash; E. C. Beddingfield, Raleigh.

Fifth—J. S. Carr, Durham; J. N. Wilson, Greensboro; R. L. Holt, Burlington; C. O. McMichael, Madison.

Sixth—J. D. Bellamy, Wilmington; W. A. Stewart, Dunn; J. D. Croom, Maxton; E. J. Hale, Fayetteville.

Seventh—S. W. Finish Lexington; D. E. Melver, W. F. Gibson, Gibson Station; N. G. Williams.

Eighth—Col. P. B. Means, Concord; Edmond Jones, Lenoir; R. A. Dougherty, Sparta; S. V. Long, Statesville.

Ninth—Dr. R. J. Brevard, J. H. Wedington, Mecklenburg; Major H. F. Schenck, Cleveland; T. J. Jones, Madison County.

Tenth—Locke Craig, Asheville; T. W. Whitmore, Brevard; G. L. Jones, Franklin; S. Gallert, Rutherfordton.

Chairman Simmons announced following advisory committee of the members: Lee S. Overman, C. B. Aycock, L. Banks Holt, P. M. Pearsall, W. I. Everett, R. N. Hackett, W. N. Webb and Plato Collins.

MR. ROOT AT RIO.

The United States is big and strong, while the other American states are at any rate weak, and many of them are small. Mr. Root's chief mission at the Pan-American congress was to remove the fear that the weak always have of the strong. "We wish," he told the delegates, "no victories but those of peace, no territory except our own, and no sovereignty except sovereignty over ourselves, which we deem independence." And then he went on in simple, straightforward terms to tell what we do want. "We wish," he added, "to increase our prosperity, expand our trade, and grow in wealth and wisdom, but our conception of the true way to accomplish this is not to pull down others and profit by their ruin, but to help all our friends to common prosperity and growth that we may all become greater and stronger together."

All accounts received from the congress agree in saying that Secretary Root's speech was warmly received, and that its effects will be beneficial. Many things had conspired to create a different impression—the canal trip and Panama, the Santo Domingo business, the extension of the Monroe doctrine to cover the collection of debts, even the Mexican war, and it is fortunate that Mr. Root had an opportunity to set things right at Rio. His definitive announcement will long stand as the line this country will hew to, and it is believed the republics to the south of us will find it all the assurances they can reasonably ask for. Mr. Root spoke wisely and well.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE.

To all to Whom These Presents May Come—Greeting:

Whereas, it appears to my satisfaction, by duly authenticated record of the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution thereof by the unanimous consent of all the stockholders, deposited in my office, that the Goldsboro Tobacco Warehouse Company, a corporation of this State, whose principal office is situated in the City of Goldsboro, County of Wayne, State of North Carolina, (C. G. Smith, Secretary, being the agent therein and in charge thereof, upon whom process may be served), has complied with the requirements of Chapter 21, Revisal of 1905, entitled "Corporations," preliminary to the issuing of this Certificate of Dissolution:

Now, Therefore, I, J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that the said corporation did, on the 17th day of July, 1906, file in my office a duly executed and attested consent in writing to the dissolution of said corporation, executed by all the stockholders thereof, which said consent and the record of the proceedings aforesaid are now on file in my said office as provided by law.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereto set my hand and affixed my official seal, at Raleigh, this 17 day of July, A. D., 1906.

J. BRYAN GRIMES, Secretary of State.

Dissolution Notice.

The firm of F. F. Butts & Co., conducting a general mercantile business in the town of Mt. Olive, Wayne county, is this day dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. Butts having purchased the interest of Mr. Bell, he succeeds the firm and will conduct the business in his own name at the same old stand, and will pay all liabilities and collect all debts of the late firm.

F. F. BUTTS, JNO. R. BELL.
